*To my Parents,
William and Elizabeth (Moore) Harlan,
I dedicate this work;*

Knowing that, though they have long since passed from Earth, it would have had their fullest approbation.

PREFACE.

This book had its beginning in the Fall of 1881. I made a visit in September of that year to several of my father's cousins * in order to learn from them something of the life and history of my great-grandfather Harlan. I knew little of my ancestors at that time, but found there several old letters and records which contained much that I had wanted to know. It became my desire, then, to trace my own line back to an immigrant ancestor, and, later, to set down in permanent form all that could be learned concerning the family. That desire of so long ago has culminated in the present volume.

No one, unless he has attempted a similar task, can have an adequate conception of the work thus involved. There were seventeen children born to George and Michael Harlan. Of Deborah, the third daughter of George, we know little more than that she married one Joshua Calvert; further trace of the family has been lost. Solomon, the fifth son of Michael, died unmarried. So it remained to follow the subsequent history of fifteen families, and though some of the lines are indeed incomplete, most of them will be found to be well developed.

In 1887, two hundred years after George and Michael had come to America, the family assembled at Birmingham Park, near Philadelphia. There they effected a permanent organization which was named "The Association of the Descendants of George and Michael Harlan in the United States." It has held fourteen reunions, some of the most important of which have been at Richmond, Ind., 1888; West Chester, Pa., 1897; Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, 1899; Union City, Ind., 1900, and again at Richmond in 1912. It has been the means whereby members of the family have learned to know and to keep in touch with each other, and it has been of great assistance in the preparation of the present work.

The information herein contained has been gathered from many sources. Old wills, marriage certificates, Friends' Meeting records, newspapers, and hundreds of letters have been read and reread in order to obtain from them some information which would be of use. Often one name has been the means of bringing together many families, and often one letter has opened a field requiring months of work to fully explore.

* See page 189.

The compiling of this history has been to me from the first a labor of love and of fascination and a work that I could not lay aside. I have been aided in it by countless relatives and friends, and to all of them, though many have long since passed away, my heartfelt gratitude must be expressed.

After a third of a century of almost continuous endeavor, I am handing this work to my people for their approval. I do it with the earnest prayer that the present and future generations shall strive hard to uphold the standards of Christianity as set up and maintained by their forefathers.

ALPHEUS H. HARLAN.

EXPLANATIONS.

The personal history of each individual is given in connection with his appearance as the head of a family. Historical matter is printed in large type. The arrangement is by generations, and by their numbers the children of one generation may be found as parents in the next. In the later generations this is not always true. The generation to which each individual belongs is indicated by the small figure attached to the name, counting Thomas, George and Michael Harlan of the third.

Abbreviations: b. for born; d. for died; m. for married; un. for unmarried; em. for emigrated; bur. for buried; dau. for daughter; b. g. for burying ground; Mo. for month; Twp. for township; Co. for county.

Dates are given in the order of month, day and year, and the numerical system is almost universally used, this being most convenient, besides conforming to usage of Friends.

The Province of Pennsylvania, on "the 7th day of y^e 10th mo. 1682," passed an act "that Y^e Days of Y^e Week and Y^e Months of Y^e Yeare shall be called as in Scripture & not by Heathen names, . . . and beginning with Y^e Day called Sunday and Y^e Month called March." This was followed 28 years later by an act providing "that all Deeds, Conveyances, Mortgages, Bills, Charter-Parties, . . . wherein the Names of the Months are called First, Second, Third and Fourth, instead of March, April, May, June, and so of the rest, always accounting the Month called March to be the first Month of the year . . . to be as good and valid . . . as if the Months in such Writings had been set down and expressed by their usual names."

In 1751, the English Parliament decreed that the year should begin upon the first day of January, so March thereafter was the third instead of the first month.

In this book, therefore, the early dates are given as they were written at the time, and the reader will observe that in many instances, between the first day of January and the twenty-fifth day of March, two dates are given, thus: 1723-24. The reason is clear: while the ecclesiastical year began on the twenty-fifth day of March, the historical year began on the first day of January, and it is to be understood that it is 1723 by the former and 1724 by the latter computation.

HISTORY AND GENEALOGY OF THE HARLAN FAMILY.

JAMES HARLAND, Yeoman and member of the Episcopal Church, was b. about the year 1625 in the "Bishoprick, nigh Durham, England," and is the earliest paternal ancestor known to the family in America bearing the name Harlan. He lived and d. an Englishman, and was bur. upon English soil, no one to-day knows where. Tradition says that the name of his father was William.

That James Harland was married according to the usages of the Established Church there is no doubt. That his children were baptized and recorded therein is fully established by the fact that the earliest record we have of his son, George, is that he was "Baptised at the Monastery of Monkwearmouth* in Oald England." We have no record giving the name of the wife and mother. So far as known, James Harland was the father of three sons:

2. Thomas, b. —; d. —; m. Katherine Bullock and Alice Foster.
3. George, b. —; d. —, 1714; m. Elizabeth Duck.
4. Michael, b. —; d. —, 1729; m. Dinah Dixon.

2. Thomas Harland³ (James,² William¹), Yeoman, Friend, b. "Nigh Durham, in Bishoprick, England," where he remained until early manhood, when with his brothers and others he crossed over into Ireland and located in the Parish of Donnahlong, County Down. It is supposed that he remained there during life, and that he was buried in the burying grounds at Lurgan Meeting House, County Armagh. He m. 2, 7, 1680, by ceremony of Friends at Lurgan Meeting, held then "at the house of Francis Robson," in the Parish of Segoe, County Armagh, Katherine Bullock (Friend), b. —, d. 3 Mo. 1690, County Down, a dau. of George Bullock, of the Parish of Donnahlong. They were the parents of one son, Ananias, and of four daughters, Rebecca, Patience, Christian and Katherine.

Thomas Harland m. second, 11, 8, 1702, Ailice ffoster, of "Lisnegarvy, at Richard Boyes house, Ballinderry Meeting, County of Armagh." They were the parents of two sons, James and Thomas, and of one dau., Abigail.

* Monkwearmouth Monastery was founded by Benedict Biscop in the year A. D. 672. It is situated in a town of the same name in the east division of Chester, County Durham, and one-half mile north of Sunderland. It receives its name from its location near the mouth of the river Wear. Burned and plundered time and again, only the tower and some detached parts of the church remain of the once celebrated monastery. In 1790 the parish registers, with the exception of some of the late records, were destroyed by fire, and it is very probable that information of untold value to us perished in the flames.

We find the names of George Harland, Alphonsus Kirk, etc., among the signers to Thomas Harland's first marriage certificate, but it seems that this brother did not venture to cast his lot in the new world. So far as we can learn he remained in Ireland; we find his descendants, some fifty years later, crossing into Pennsylvania, and settling in Chester County. The further line of Thomas Harland, obtained too late to be inserted here, will be found given in the appendix.

3. George Harlan³ (James,² William¹), Yeoman, "Ye sone of James Harland of Monkwearmouth, was Baptised at the Monastery of Monkwearmouth in Oald England, ye 11th Day of First Month 1650." He was b. "Nigh Durham in Bishoprick, England," and remained there until he reached manhood, when, in company with his brother and others, he crossed into Ireland and located in the County of Down. While residing there he m. by ceremony of Friends, 9, 17, 1678, Elizabeth Duck. George Harlan * brought his family to America in 1687, and the nine years intervening were without doubt spent in the above-named parish and county, and there, too, in all probability, his first four children were born. He d. in "Fifth Month" (July), 1714, and was buried beside his "deare wife in the new burying grounds on Alphonsus Kirk's land," which was afterwards, and is yet, Center Meeting Burying Grounds. George and Elizabeth were the parents of nine children:

5. Ezekiel, b. 6, 16, 1679; d. 4, 15, 1731; m. Mary Bezer and Ruth Buffington.
6. Hannah, b. 2, 4, 1681; d. —; m. Samuel Hollingsworth.
7. Moses, b. 12, 20, 1683; d. 1747; m. Margaret Ray.
8. Aaron, b. 10, 24, 1685; d. 9 Mo. 1732; m. Sarah Heald.
9. Rebecca, b. 8, 17, 1688; d. 8, 17, 1775; m. William Webb.
10. Deborah, b. 8, 28, 1690; d. —; m. Joshua Calvert.
11. James, b. 8, 19, 1692; d. —; m. Elizabeth —.
12. Elizabeth, b. 8, 9, 1694; d. —; m. Joseph Robinson.
13. Joshua, b. 11, 15, 1696; d. 5 Mo. 1744; m. Mary Heald.

† George Harland, of Parish of Donahlong, Co. Down, Ireland, and Elizabeth Duck, of Lurgan, Parish of Shankill, Co. Armagh, were married "at the house of Marke Wright in ye Parish of Shankill," 9 Mo. 17, 1678:

No certificate of the membership of George Harland with Friends is upon record, but his marriage certificate shows us that at that time he was a member, and as early as "Tenth Month" (December), of 1687, he was placed upon committees of responsibility in Friends' Affairs in his new neighborhood. At the time of his residence in Ireland, William Penn was urging Friends of England to become settlers upon his lands, cautioning them, however, against "leaving their own country out of idle curiosity or of a rambling disposition." But names signed above we find later in the new world, and, as we have seen, George was buried upon "Alphonsus Kirk's land." So they were not without friends when they made their settlement near the Delaware.

In the early months of the year 1687, in company with his wife and four children, and his brother Michael, then unmarried, he took ship at Belfast for America. They had bought lands before coming * which were within that part of the Province of Pennsylvania now embraced in the County of New Castle. Ascending the river Delaware they landed at the town of New Castle (now in Delaware State), and settled near the present town of Centreville. Here the elder brother remained for some years, and about 1698/99, having purchased higher up the Brandywine Creek, he moved his family and settled in what is now † Pennsbury Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania.

* From the old warrants granted "within the County of New Castle, on Delaware," we learn that "George Harland" and "James & Thomas Harlin" purchased lands there in the summer of 1686, and that "James Harland" did likewise in January of 1701.

While living in Kennet † Township (now Pennsbury), George Harlan had for neighbors a settlement of Indians who lived in the "Great Bend" of the Brandywine. After they had gone he obtained, in 1701, a warrant for 200 acres of land in the bend, which was granted to him "in regard for the great trouble and charge he had borne in fencing and maintaining the same for said Indians while living thereon."

We find his name among the signers of the return for a road laid out in the winter of 1704-5. This road ran "from the fork of the Brandywine, in Alice Vestal's land" to a white oak "standing by y^e road from George Harlands to Neman's Creek Mill."

* The name is variously spelled Dixon, Dixson, Dickson, etc. Judging from the manner in which the testator disposed of his estate, leads one to conclude that he was a relative of the family. We have no evidence that William Dixon and Ann Gregg had a daughter Elizabeth, or that Dinah Dixon, the wife of Michael Harlan, No. 4, and her brother, William, had a sister, Elizabeth. It is very probable, therefore, that this "Elizabeth Dickson" was the mother of Dinah Harlan, and perhaps a widow in 1694, and residing with her daughter. William Dixon's land warrant bounds his property upon the east by lands of Thomas Child. The latter is probably the plantation mentioned in the above will.

† The spelling of the name will be found to vary in this volume. It is generally spelled with two "t's," but the original spelling on the old court records was with one "t," and it is spelled in England in the same way, both on early and modern maps.—Futhey and Cope's History of Chester County, Pennsylvania.

George Harlan first belonged to Newark Meeting, but after his removal up the Brandywine and westward, he was too remote from this meeting for punctual attendance, especially in the winter, and at a request of himself and others, a meeting "beyond Brandywine" was established. From the Monthly Meeting records of Center Meeting, as the meeting was called, we read: "This meeting appoints George Harlan, Thomas Hollingsworth, Alphonsus Kirk, & Samuel Groves, to take y^e oversight of y^e building of y^e Centre Meeting House requesting y^m with all convenient speed to let out y^e work to some workmen in order y^t it may more speedily done & return an acctt to y^e next meeting how they proceed." The deed for the land had been conveyed by Alphonsus Kirk, while yet a member of Newark, to John Craig, Samuel Groves and John Richardson. The consideration was £12, 5s.

George Harlan soon became one of the foremost citizens of the colony. He had been one of the provincial governors of the "three lower counties," now the state of Delaware, in 1695, and was a member of the Colonial Assembly in 1712. His colleagues in the latter were Caleb Pusey, David Lloyd, William Davis, John Baker, Nathaniel Newlin, Nicholas Fairlamb, John Wood, Isaac Taylor and John Maris.

Upon the first day of March, 1713, he deeded 203 acres to his son-in-law, William Webb, for a consideration of 30 pounds. On the ninth day of the same month, "in consideration of the Natural Affection & fatherly love which he hath" and also "for divers other good causes and valuable considerations," he deeded 200 acres each to his sons James and Joshua.

George Harlan died in "Fifth Month" (July), 1714. The date of the death of his wife is unknown, but in his will he requests that he be buried beside his "deare wife in the new burying grounds."

4. Michael Harlan^s (James,² William¹), Yeoman, Friend, was b. "Nigh Durham, in Bishoprick, England, about the year 1660," and in early life em. with his brothers into Ireland and settled with them in the County of Down. Here he remained until 1687, when he accompanied his brother George to America. "And y^e beginning of y^e yeare 1690," Michael Harlan m. Dinah Dixon, "y^e Daughter of Henry Dixon and settled first Neer y^e Senter Meeting House." They afterward removed into London Grove Twp., where Michael d. "Fourth Month" (June), 1729, and was bur. in Friends' Burying Grounds. His wife was doubtless bur. there also. They had the following issue:

(now in) Delaware; d., it is said, in Frederick Co., Md., but perhaps in Frederick Co., Va.; probably bur. at Hopewell Meeting House in the latter county. It is not known whether the children after Jacob are in the correct order or not.

From the minutes of Center Monthly Meeting, 1, 2, 1716/17: "Whereas complaint having been made concerning Jeames Harlan takeing a wife Contrary to the good order established amongst Friends, and hath been labored with from time to time to bring him to a sense of his weekness in so doing; but he yett seams to be insensable thereof, Wherefore the meeting appoints Robert Johnson and Gayen Miller to speak to him & desires him to Our next Monthly Meeting to see if he will condem the said action, and that he give an account to the next meeting alsoe."

James Gibbons. It seems that he then left the county, and possibly went to Virginia." *

From the will of Aaron Harlan (No. 51) to be found upon record in the courts of Frederick Co., Va., and who d. in 1760, James and his wife were then living; hence their deaths occurred subsequent to 1760, and as I have already remarked, I believe that they d. in Frederick Co., Va., and were bur. at Hopewell Meeting House in that county.

THE BAILY FAMILY.—Joel Baily is supposed to have come from Wiltshire, England. One among the early purchasers of land in the Province of Pennsylvania was a Daniel Baily, who resided in Westbrook, in the parish of Bromham, Wiltshire. He was by trade and occupation a weaver, and in 1681 purchased a warrant for 125 acres of land in the Colony of William Penn, which was subsequently located in Birmingham Township, Chester County. He never came to America, but one Joel Baily, who was probably a near relative of his, appears to have been concerned in the sale of this land in 1713 to one William Radley. Joel Baily and Ann Short were married in Chester County, and resided on lands which were partly in Middletown and partly in Aston (now in Delaware County). In 1704/5 he removed to

15. Abigail Harlan ⁴ (Michael,³ James ²), b. 9, 23, 1692, in the Province of Pennsylvania, (now in) New Castle Co., Del. She removed with her parents into Kennet Twp., and afterwards into London Grove. She m. 12, 17, 1724/5, in Friends' Meeting at London Grove Meeting House, Richard Flower (Friend, farmer); b. it is supposed in Leicestershire, England; d. about 1748, in London Grove Twp.; bur. in Friends' Burying Grounds at New Garden Meeting House; a son of Richard and Mary Flower, of Leicestershire, England. Richard and Abigail settled upon lands in London Grove Twp., that were afterwards willed to her by her father, the clause reading: "I Give & Bequeath to my son-in-law, Richard Flower & his Heirs forever that part of said Tract upon y^e Branch of Elk River that he Dwelleth upon."

It is quite probable that Richard and Abigail settled first in Kennet Twp. The records of Kennet Meeting, "informs" that Abigail Harlan took certificate to New Garden, 6, 30, 1729. They had issue:

* Futhey and Cope's History of Chester County, Penna.

†Robert was her son by her first husband, Alexander Stewart.

16. Thomas Harlan ⁴ (Michael,³ James ²), farmer, Friend, b. 4, 24, 1694, in (now) Delaware. He removed with his parents into Chester Co., Pa., where he d. in Feb., 1745/6, and was bur. at "Old" Kennet Meeting House. He m. in the year 1720, in Friends' Meeting at New Garden, Mary Carter (Friend), b. 12, 11, 1699, in Chester Co.; a dau. of Robert Carter and Lydia Walley. There is no record to be found which will give the date of the death of Mary Carter Harlan, or that tells where she was bur. Issue:

79. Isaac, m. Hannah Few, 2, 25, 1744.
80. Abigail, m. John Wilson, 9, 29, 1744. No further record.
81. Thomas, b. —; d. 4, 21, 1766; m. Mary Baldwin, 9, 19, 1753; (2) Mary Baily, 10, 12, 1757/8.

Among the records of Trinity (Old Swedes) Church, Wilmington, Del., is to be found the following: "January 12 Anno D. 1753: Thomas Buffington and Mary Harlan, L." If this refers to the above Mary Carter Harlan it means that she m. at that old church by Episcopal ceremony (having first procured a license), her second husband, Thomas Buffington.

THE CARTER FAMILY.—Edwin Carter, of Aston, Parish of Bampton, Oxfordshire, England, came to the Province of Pennsylvania in 1682, and settled in Aston Township, Chester County. His wife's name was Margaret. They had an only son, Robert, who m. Lydia Walley, 1688, and had issue: (i) Prudence, b. 11, 6, 1689; m. Caleb Pusey, Jr. (ii) John, b. 4, 8, 1691; d. 2, 21, 1693. (iii) Hannah, b. 12, 22, 1692; m. Stephen Harlan (No. 17). (iv) Lydia, b. 8, 8, 1697; m. Joseph Coebourn, Jr., 3, 22, 1718. (v) John, b. 2, 21, 16—; m. Isabel Atkinson, 1716. (vi) Edward, b. —. (vii) Mary, b. 12, 11, 1699; m. Thomas Harlan (No. 16), 1720.

The will of Thomas Harlan was proven Feb. 27, 1745/6. An inventory of his estate, appraised Dec. 19, 1755, by James Few and Richard Flower, values his belongings at £292, 16^s 11^d.

17. Stephen Harlan ⁴ (Michael,³ James ²), yeoman, Friend, b. 2, 16, 1697, in New Castle Co., (now in) State of Delaware; d. about 2 Mo., 1732, in Newlin Twp.; bur. in Friends' Burying Grounds at Bradford Meeting House. He removed about the year 1700 with his parents into Chester Co., Pa., settling in Kennet Twp. He m. 7, 26, 1723, in Friends' Meeting at New Garden, Hannah Carter (a Friend); b. 12, 22, 1692, in that county; a dau. of Robert Carter (yeoman), b.

Oxfordshire, England, and Lydia Walley, b. Chester Co., Pa., and a sister to the wife of his brother Thomas. Issue:

- 85. Henry, of whom nothing more could be found.
- 86. Hannah, who m. William Pyle, in Kennet Meeting, 3, 24, 1749. No further record.
- 87. Stephen, b. 1730; d. 8 Mo., 1810; m. Deborah (Woodward) Strode, 12, 22, 1759.

Hannah after her marriage carried a certificate of membership from Chester Monthly Meeting to Bradford Monthly Meeting dated 3 Mo., 1725, which points to the fact that she was at one time a resident of that part of Chester, now Delaware Co., and the home at one time of the Carter family, before their removal into Marlborough Twp.

Stephen Harlan, in 1724, purchased a farm of 320 acres lying in Bradford and Newlin Twps., of which 300 acres was in the former. The price was one pound per acre. A further consideration was a "Quit Rent" of one English shilling per hundred acres, or the value thereof "in the Coyne current here."

Letters of administration were granted to his widow about April 8, 1733, he having d. intestate. His estate of 290 acres, the houses, improvements and personal property amounted to £402 s. 2. Among the personal property were two servants who were to be released at the expiration of their time. In 1741 a certificate was granted for Hannah and her children to Philadelphia Monthly Meeting. The records of this meeting say: "Hannah Harlan & children from Bradford Monthly Meeting Chester County, Pennsylvania, by certificate dated 6 Mo. 20, 1741. Her daughter Hannah is particularly mentioned as free from marriage engagements."

There is no record to be found showing when and where Hannah Harlan d. She was present in Kennet Meeting (1749) at the marriage of her dau. Hannah, but there is nothing after that date to be found concerning her.

18. Michael Harlan ⁴ (Michael,³ James ²), farmer, miller, Friend, b. 2, 7, 1699, in the Co. of New Castle, (now in) the State of Delaware. He removed with his parents, while yet a small boy, into Chester Co., Pa., and settled with them in Kennet Twp. He m. sometime in the year 1724, "Contrary to the usages established amongst Friends," Hannah Maris (a Friend), b. 8, 8, 1702, in Chester, (now in) Delaware Co., Pa.; a dau. of John Maris, yeoman, and Susanna Lewis, the former of whom was b. 3, 21, 1669, in Worcestershire, England, and d. 1, 8, 1747, in Chester, now in Delaware Co., Pa. Issue:

- 88. David, b. 1725; m. Alice Starr, 12, 16, 1756.
- 89. Caleb, b. 1728; d. 7 Mo., 1815; m. Ann Jackson, 10, 23, 1760.
- 90. Michael, d. 1814 or 1815, in Harford Co., Md; unm.
- 91. Stephen, who m. Lydia Greenfield, 10, 18, 1765.
- 92. Sarah, b. 1737; d. 3, 5, 1815; m. Moses Starr, 3, 19, 1760.
- 93. Silas, who d. in early manhood; bur. in Friends' Burying Grounds at London Grove Meeting House.

Michael Harlan, subsequent to his marriage, removed to and settled in London Grove Twp. on a farm, upon a part of which he erected a stone flouring mill. He d. there in 1757, and was buried at London Grove Meeting House. Parts of the old stone dwelling and the stone mill, situated between the borroughs of Chatham and West Grove are yet standing, as also the mill-race, conveying the water to the mill, were built and constructed by him now more than 140 years ago. There is no record found that would give the date and place of death of the wife, but the supposition is that she too d. there, and was bur. at London Grove Meeting House.

The records of "Old" Kennet Meeting informs that Michael Harlan, made an acknowledgment for marrying out of unity with Friends, to one who was also a member, but the records seem silent as to what the result was. Chester Monthly Meeting records of 4, 26, 1725, informs that: Hannah Maris, dau. of John and Susanna Maris, was disowned for "marrying out," to Michael Harlan.

As the births of their children were not recorded in meeting the presumption is that they were not again in membership with Friends.

Michael Harlan dying intestate, his brother David Harlan was made his administrator, 11, 30, 1757.

THE MARIS FAMILY.—George and Alice Maris came from Worcestershire, England, and settled in that portion of Chester County, now in Delaware County, Pennsylvania, in 1683. His certificate from Friends' Meeting bore date of 3 Mo., 1683, and was from "Att Hadeswell In y^e Pish of Inksborough and County of Worcester." They became members of Darby Meeting. Issue: (i) Alice, b. 8, 17, 1660; m. Jacob Simcox, "of Ridley," 11, 15, 1684. (ii) George, b. 10, 2, 1662; m. Jane Maddox, "dau. of Henry," 1690. (iii) Elizabeth, b. 2, 3, 1665; m. John Mendenhall, "of Concord," 1685. (iv) Anna, b. 6, 18, 1667; m. John Worrilow, "of Edgemont," 8, 14, 1690. (v) John, b. 3, 21, 1669; m. Susanna Lewis, "of Haverford," 9, 21, 1693. (vi) Richard, who m. Elizabeth Hays, a dau. of Jonathan and Ann, "of Marple."

19. Solomon Harlan ⁴ (Michael,³ James²), b. 10, 7, 1701; d. 2 Mo., 1732; unm. Solomon Harlan was probably b. in the Province of Pennsylvania, in that part which is now Delaware. He was a well-to-do farmer. In his will he bequeaths to his brother James his farm of 250 acres. He made his mark at the signature, and as he was then only 30 years of age, it is probable that he was poorly educated in the art of writing. We only know that Dinah Harlan, his mother, was alive at the time of writing, as he wills that his brother, James, keep his mother her lifetime.

"An Inventory of the Goods & Chattles of Solomon Harlan late of London Grove, Deceased. Filed 18th of 9th month 1732," appraised by John Strodd [Strode] and Jer. Starr, values the total estate at £339.

20. James Harlan ⁴ (Michael,³ James²), farmer, Friend, b. 10, 19, 1703, in Kennet Twp., Chester Co., Pa.; d. about the month of August, 1774, in London Grove Twp.; bur. in Friends' Burying Grounds at London Grove Meeting House. He m. 10, 19, 1733, by ceremony of Friends at Concord Meeting, in Chester, (now in) Delaware Co., Susanna Oborn (a Friend), b. 5, 15, 1711, in Concord Twp.; a dau. of Henry and Hannah (Cooke) Oborn of that township, and natives of England. James Harlan, who was b. and reared in Kennet, was the first of his father's family b. in Pennsylvania. At the time of his marriage he was a member of Kennet Meeting, and was probably residing in that township, although his father and family were mostly residing in London Grove. His father in his will mentions him thus: "Item. I Give & Bequeath to my son James Harlan & his Heirs forever that Tract of Land upon Octoraro Creek being four hundred acres in all"; but it does not appear that he was residing upon it at the time of his marriage. He settled upon it and d. there. His wife having d. some years prior to him, was bur., it is said, at Kennet Burial Grounds. Issue:

94. Betty, b. 1734; d. 7, 8, 1769; m. William Willis, 11, 20, 1753.
95. Solomon, b. 1736; m. Mary Marshall, 11, 26, 1766.

In the will of Ebenezer Harlan (No. 96), who d. unm., he disposes of his personal property as follows: To his brother Solomon 10 shillings. To his sister Ann 10 shillings. To his sister Betty 10 shillings. To Joseph the son of his brother Solomon 10 shillings. And: "Item. I Give & Bequeath unto my sister Susanna all the remainder of my personal Estate, to be paid to her within one year after my decease." His personal estate was appraised by Richard Flower (No. 77), and David Harlan (No. 88), October 16, 1769, at £25 s. 18. p. 14. His landed interests as mentioned in his will was disposed of as found in the records of his brother Henry Harlan, No. 97.

THE OBORN FAMILY.—Henry Oborn and Hannah Cooke were m. at Concord Meeting 3, 26, 1698. There is no further mention of them found by the compiler. They remained during life it is supposed in Concord Township, as their children were b. and the most of them m. there. Henry d. there in 1736. Issue: (i) Mary, b. 3, 14, 1699. She m. 2, 10, 1729, in Friends' Meeting at New Garden, Thomas Gregg, who d. 9, 1, 1748, and was bur. in Friends' Burying Ground at "Old" Kennet; a son of John and Elizabeth (Cooke) Gregg, of Christiana Hundred, New Castle Co., Del., and member with Friends at Centre Meeting. He "died ye 1st of ye 7th month and was buried on his own plantation, 1687." So far as the compiler could ascertain he was the father of four children: (i) Richard. (ii) Ann, who m. William Dixson; (2) John Houghton. (iii) John, b. 1668; d. 1738; m. 11 Mo., 1694, Elizabeth Cooke, of Concord, Chester Co., Pa. (iv) George, who m. Sarah Hogg, 1706.

According to the History of Chester Co., Pa., Hannah d. 5, 6, 1758, but the date furnished by George Passmore Harlan is 5, 6, 1769, thus leaving us in doubt as to which is the correct date of her death. Their children were all born in Kennett Township, and were: (i) Mary, b. 1, 4, 1718; m. William Phillips, 3, 26, 1742. (ii) Deborah, b. 4, 24, 1719; m. William Fisher, 8, 24, 1739. Nathan Breede Harlan, son of James Harlan (No. 199), telling of his Uncle Joshua's death, as he had heard it from his father, said: "It was during the Revolutionary War. The officers sought to conscript him, but being a Quaker, he was opposed to war. He was hiding out not far from home. A sister's daughter, I think it was, took his dinner to him, and it was supposed that the man who shot him saw where she went. That afternoon father was at work in the field and heard a gun go off near where his brother was hiding, and immediately went to him and found him shot through the thigh and bleeding rapidly. As soon as Uncle saw him he said: 'Jeemes, I am powerful dry.' Having no vessel, he ran to a branch, filled his wool cap with water, took it to him and then ran to the house for help. They placed him upon a sheet, and started to the house, but he died before they could reach it."

She spoke of her grandfather John as being a very good and pleasant man, but said that her grandmother was hard to get along with."

From the papers of William Harlan (No. 833), a grandson of the above George Harlan: "I once saw amongst the papers of Stephen Harlan [No. 49] an account of George Harlan being baptized at Mount Yarmouth, in Old England, date not recalled; from there he and his wife Deborah moved into Ireland; from there to America. The account gave the name . . . of James, who . . . was my grandfather. [He was his great grandfather.] My connections in my grandmother's line were of Welsh descent. I saw . . . my father's grandmother. She was very old and I think blind. She lived on Licking Creek, Washington Co., Md. My father's mother was Ann Hunt. My mother's father was William Porterfield, born in the County of Donegal, Ireland. Her mother's name was Martha Alexander, born in Ireland, but came to America with her parents when but three years old. William Porterfield had seven sons and two daughters: Charles, Jonah, John, William, Alexander, Mathew, George, Rachel, and Mary, my mother. Charles was killed by the Indians on Opequan Creek, now in Berkeley Co., W. Va., when my mother was a child. Jonah settled upon New River in Virginia. John moved to Carolina. The others all remained in Berkeley Co., Va. My grandfather died in his 74th year. William lived to be an old man, and died since I left Virginia. For so doing he made an acknowledgment to Kennet Monthly Meeting, 6, 5, 1749, and thus retained his membership. The maiden name of his wife is unknown, but from the records of "Old" Kennet Meeting it is reasoned that her death occurred between the years 1750 and 1753. Her burial was at "Old" Kennet. Issue:

218. George, b. 1750; d. 1815; m. Mary Wright.

In 1762, James Harlan, then residing in Frederick Co., Va., returned to Chester Co., and on July 1, 1762, m. at Holy Trinity (Old Swedes) Church, Wilmington, Del., Dinah Harlan (Davis) (No. 70), a dau. of George Harlan and Mary Baily (Stewart), and a widow of Robert Davis, to whom she was m. in 3 Mo., 1740. They returned to Frederick Co., Va., and later moved to Eastern Kentucky, where Robert d. His will speaks of children, not named. James and Dinah had no issue.

There was an incident in the life of James Harlan that is worthy of record. It was his violation of the Friends' discipline by the erection of grave stones at the grave of his first wife. No stones were allowed; each of these old b. g. was platted, and the plat was carefully preserved by the clerk of the meeting. It is presumed that, contemplating his removal to Frederick Co., Va., he placed the stones so that the grave would not be lost to him. The matter came up at Kennet Monthly Meeting, 3, 1, 1760, when "James Harlan requests a certificate to Hopewell Monthly Meeting, and William Lewis and William Harvey are appointed a committee to enquire," etc. Kennet Monthly Meeting, 4, 17, 1760: "The Friends report there is some obstructions against James Harlan's certificate, so is left under their care till the next meeting." The matter was continued from meeting to meeting till 7, 14, 1760, "The committee report that they removed the grave stones." Kennet Monthly Meeting, 1, 15, 1761: "James Harlan being here at this time and appearing dissatisfied with Friends for removing y^e grave stones he sett up at his wifes grave tho' advised to the contrary which was the obstruction to his certificate being allowed and his charging and blaming Friends therefore we can have no further unity with him until by giving heed to y^e dictates of truth in his own heart he satisfies Friends for his disorders which is our desire that he may." This he refused to do, and at the same meeting was disowned. Kennet Monthly Meeting: "James Harlan declares by letter his intention to take an appeal to the Quarterly Meeting." But there is no account of it, and it is presumed that he let the matter drop.

To-day, in the b. g. of "Old" Kennet Meeting House, there are a number of neat marble grave stones standing as silent witnesses of the cause for which James Harlan contended.

Residing in the Mendenhall property, in the Seventies, was Aaron Mendenhall, a grandson of Joseph. The Homestead contains 150 acres; part of the 1000 acres purchased in 1703. London Grove Monthly Meeting, 10 Mo., 1766: "Solomon Harlan son of James and Susanna, the latter deceased, and Mary Marshall, daughter of John and Hannah, the former deceased, declare their intentions of marriage."

London Grove Monthly Meeting, 11, 1, 1766: "Solomon Harlan, and Mary Marshall appearing here signified they continued their intentions of marriage with each other and he having procured his fathers consent in writing lost the paper since he left home yet several Friends now signify they saw it and that it certified his father as consenting & nothing appearing to obstruct their intentions that meeting leaves them to their liberty to accomplish their marriage orderly and appoints

Aaron Baker & Joel Baily to attend the marriage and make report to the next monthly meeting & bring the marriage certificate to be recorded."

Solomon Harlan, in 1772, was disowned by Friends at New Garden Meeting, he having fallen a victim to the habit so common in those days, that of "drinking to excess."

New Garden Monthly Meeting, 6, 3, 1786: "Mary Harlan wife of Solomon asked for a certificate to Nottingham [Monthly Meeting] for herself and children, Joseph, John, David, Ann, George, and Lewis."

Nottingham Monthly Meeting, 7, 29, 1786: "Mary Harlan produced a certificate from New Garden Monthly Meeting for herself and six children, Joseph, John, David, Ann, George, & Lewis Harlan. This certificate was duly received."

From these records it appears that Solomon and Mary, with their family, removed into Cecil Co., Md., about the year 1786. They remained there during life.

James Harlan, in his will, says: "I Give & Devise to my son Solomon Harlan, all my plantation I now live on Containing Two hundred & Ten acres more or less, &c." This property Solomon and Mary sold in 1776 to Jonathan Maris.

"DOE RUN SLITTING MILLS PA February 17 1779.

"Dear Brother Enoch Harlan.

"This is to inform thee that we are all well. thanks be to God for all his mercies. Hope these few lines will find thee and all thy family in the same state of health. All thy brothers are well and all thy sisters are well and this is to inform thee that I do carry on the slitting business, and Enoch is married and follows the farm. Ezekiel lives with us and helps to carry on the business. I believe thee never intends to send us any more word. Please to let brother Stephen know we are all well and cousin Nathan Farlow and the rest of them. I find the business to answer a very good end and I rent from Nathan Hayes and give him £100 in money and slit nine tons of bar iron a year for him and we get a market for all our nail iron as fast as we can make it and it follows that I can clear £2. a day and we follow it every day.

"No more at present but I would be very glad that thee will remember my love to all the friends. Farewell.

"GEORGE HARLAN."

George Harlan for many years was a very successful man in his business affairs, but by indorsing for some of his friends, and too much confidence in some others, he met with reverses and in his old days was in very humble circumstances.

And there be two scithes one for Nathan and thee one for thee is cracked at the point. From the best information obtainable, Nathaniel Carter and his family removed from Chester Co., Pa., to Chatham Co., N. C., about the year 1764.

Stephen Harlan (No. 115), who had m. Mary, the dau. of Nathaniel, accompanied them with his wife and family, and it is said that Enoch went with the company to assist them with the stock. It is not known to us of this day how long he remained, but he was at home in Chester Co. in 1766 from the following letter :

“ Y^e 7th. Mo. 28, 1766.

“ Dear Friend Enoch.

“ I send thee these few lines to let thee know that I am in good health at present and I hope thee art in the same state. Our parting was a trouble to me, neither do I ever expect to see thee again, but I hope the Lord will preserve us both, and my desire is for thy welfare as for my own. I received thy letter which I was glad to see, and to hear that thee had got safe home again to thy dear parents, which no doubt was a joyful sight to them. Thee says in thy letter that thou art free in mind to come here again but that thy mother is not free to part with thee. So I despair of ever seeing thee again. So in that love that nothing but death can separate I bid thee farewell, farewell, from thy loving friend,

“ EDITH CARTER.”

“ The length of time, nor distance of the way,
“ Shall make my love grow cold or wear away.

“ N. B.—I desire thee to write a few lines to me. I now live at John Carters.* Direct thy letter to Betty Harveys. I would be exceeding glad to see the again.

“ Enoch Harlan,

“ Near Doe Run These.”

New Garden Monthly Meeting, 11, 4, 1769: “ London Grove preparative meeting reports that Enoch Harlan,—son of William,—and Robert Neal, son of Henry, have gone to North Carolina without certificates and have there married out of unity of Friends. The former to a woman not of our Society . . . ”

New Garden Monthly Meeting, 11, 23, 1769: “ Enoch Harlan,—son of William,—went to North Carolina without a certificate and married out of the Society. A testimony prepared against him to be read at Londongrove preparative meeting and then sent to North Carolina.”

New Garden Monthly Meeting, 12, 2, 1769: Enoch Harlan was disowned.

New Garden Monthly Meeting, 7, 6, 1776: “ Enoch Harlan who was testified against by that meeting [London Grove Preparative], in the year 1769 now residing in Guilford county North Carolina, having sent a request to be received again under care but not having sent any acknowledgement for his misconduct he was wrote to by direction of that meeting on that account and also to a friend there requesting that he might be visited by them and an account of his disposition being sent to us and his acknowledgement being now received together with a few lines from Center preparative meeting in the said county signifying his orderly conduct of late; and their belief in his sincerity both of which were read and the case solidly considered, and several Friends expressing their minds his offering is received, and Joshua Pusey is appointed to prepare a few lines recommending him to Center monthly meeting.

* John Carter was the great grandfather of Miriam, the wife of John Henry Douglass, the Quaker Evangelist. She now resides at Whittier, Cal.

"A certificate being prepared for Enoch Harlan it is approved and signed by the clerk and divers others."

When Enoch and Edith em. to North Carolina they settled in Randolph Co. Enoch Harlan rented a saw mill and was operating it when taken sick. He was both a cooper and a wagonmaker, and a good scholar for that day; was quite an astronomer, that is, he knew as much as was known at that time. His death was due to typhus fever, and he d. in the 49th year of his age.

In the year 1806 Edith Harlan and her children had established themselves in the Northwest territory, in what is now Clinton Co., Ohio. Her sister, Elizabeth Harvey (she, too, a widow) and her children were also living in the same neighborhood. They had left behind them the graves of their husbands and many near and dear kindred with whom they had parted forever, and realized that it was true when the last sad farewells were spoken. A reference to the family record of Nathaniel and Ann Carter will aid in determining who a number of them were, and the letters now following will allow us of this day and age to see and know and feel that grief which was caused by these separations. From the tone of Solomon Harlan's letters the lands belonging to the father's estate had not been sold at the time Edith and her children left there, and it seems that Solomon and David had returned to that "far off country" perhaps to dispose of them and settle up all outstanding matters.

Before the mother came to Ohio different members of her family had been out to Kentucky and the territory northwest of the Ohio River on prospecting tours. William and Jonathan had ridden as far west as the great shed separating the Miami rivers, where they spent sometime with George Harlan (No. 672) and his wife Esther, and a part of their family. They had known each other in North Carolina, the latter having gone from that state to Fayette Co., Pa., and from there to Ohio, settling in then Hamilton, now in Warren Co. From there they turned back, and William at least returned to his home in North Carolina.

"Respected Mother, Brothers, & Sisters.

"I take this opportunity to write and let you know that I am well and do not expect to be in before next fall. We were thirty days on our journey; we and our horses stood the journey very well. A more agreeable company never travelled together; we always had plenty for our horses and ourselves. I want William to sell that corn to the best advantage. I expect that some of you will write to me at the first opportunity. So having nothing more to write I might conclude and bid you farewell.

"Dear Mother Brothers & Sister.

"We have almost given out hearing from you any more. It gives us great uneasiness of mind to think of your negligence about writing because we stand in a very dissatisfied state at present and it appears as it will remain so. We would be glad if you could be satisfied to remain at home & not think of moving any more and let Enoch fall to work and not think of these distant stories. A satisfied mind is better than any of these new Countries. Mother I want thee to seriously consider these things and keep thy home and thy dear children; do not let these flying stories hurt your minds in regard to moving because it is very breaking to move both in body and mind. Mother William appears very unwilling to stay here or in the Miamis because he thinks he can do better there than any where else. This is a very fine part of the world but upon every consideration I say that it is better and we have concluded for thee and thine to stay there. I want David to remember how he felt when he was here, and likewise what Nathan told thee when thee left him. Nathaniel is going to Cumberland this spring to live. We are in pretty good state of health at present except William he has seemed to be very weakly for sometime past. He complains much of his breast and was very bad awhile as much as I ever saw him. Nathan and I was much terrified one evening with him. He appeared as tho' he was dead. But he seems to be mending. David we live at Samuel Johnsons. We have never had one word from you since William came home.

"Boys I want some one of you to plant my fields in corn this season for me because I do mean to come home again and spend my days there. If Enoch will do it I will make him satisfaction for it. But if nothing befalls me I shall be there by the first of May in order to tend it myself. No more but remain your most obedient,

At the time this letter was written the exodus had already begun. William had em. with his family toward the North, and had made a temporary halt in Mason Co., Ky. His brothers, Jonathan and Nathaniel, were both there, but unm. Nathan had been and probably was yet in that county, and David had been there, but had returned to his mother's home in North Carolina. From the tone of Jonathan's letter all were discouraged and almost ready to return to their home. It was not long, however, that this condition of things remained. There must have been other letters passed that were not preserved, for William that same year took his "four horse team" and went back to North Carolina and brought his mother, his brothers, John and Enoch, and his sisters, Rebecca and Hannah, to Mason Co., Ky., and then with his family into Ohio, stopping for the winter in what is now Highland Co., and the next spring bringing them and his family into what is now Clinton Co., where they settled and made a permanent home. They were located there when the following letter was received:

"RANDOLPH COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA, 3rd. Mo. 6, 1807.

"Dear Sister Edith

"I am now about to write to thee although I do not know where to direct my letter for I have not heard where thou art settled. Sister Elizabeth* wrote a letter to me informing me that thee overtook them in the wilderness. She said your hearts were so full that neither spoke for sometime. Thee may be assured that I sympathise with thee when I read the letters. I may say to thee that I have had some sorrowful hours in my life and thy going away was a renewal of them. When I take a view of the distance that is between us with the high mountains and large rivers and perhaps both of us in the body thy face comes fresh in my view and it seems almost too much for me. “Feeling great good will to write a few lines to thee just to inform thee a little of the turnings and overturnings of my thoughts on thy account. Sometimes for a moment I think I shall see thee again † once more, but I am soon sunk beneath all hopes by that doleful language sounding in mine ears ‘Never never more,’ and what at times seemeth more than I can bear. Thy sons David and Solomon were here a week ago, being in good health which was a satisfaction to us, although mingled with sorrow at the sight of them bringing to our recollection remembrances of times that are over and passed forever. I expect they will send thee a full account of themselves; if they do not go there this spring. So dear sister for thee is dear to me I conclude with telling thee Henry [her husband] and Nancy joins me in love to thee and all thy children without distinction.

“RANDOLPH COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, 3 Mo. 6, 1807.

“Notwithstanding Hannah has remembered me to thee I am desirous to add a few words to thee. I perfectly remember the last sight I had of thee at the gate on Abbots Creek which does not appear to be easily erased from my remembrance. I would be glad to see thee again but the prospect at present is dull. This evening we received a letter from Elizabeth Harvey informing us they were well and that thou had purchased lands within one mile and a half of them which was really glad to hear and more particularly on account considering it to be a real satisfaction to thy afflicted mind for such I expect it is under the present circumstances of things. I have not much more to write at present but I desire to be remembered to thee and thy sons and their families. Subscribing myself thy sincere affectionate and well wishing brother.

"Dear Sisters.

"Having you fresh in my mind with increased love and believing that we shall never see each other in this world again I thought I would write once more as you both have been very precious to me and companions in deep affliction; although you may say that mine in a measure is none for I still have the company and help of a good wife and indeed I may say that I am very thankful for so great a favor. But I have no great things to boast of for I am deeply afflicted with that former complaint which seems to increase upon me in my old age. The rest of my family are reasonable well at this time and I have lately heard from them parts and you in general was well which I was very glad to hear.

"Dear sisters it is to you that I am writing as I feel my mind and heart full of love to you both more than I can express. As we are all verging toward the grave. But it is a great satisfaction to me believing that your days work is not altogether undone; and my great desire to join in the Heavenly march which if it is kept up to the end will convey us safe I trust to that port where all troubles and sorrows will end. So my dear sisters I shall conclude and bid you farewell. My wife desires me to remember with love to both.

THE HAYES FAMILY.*—Henry Hayes "lately arrived in the province." He had before coming obtained a warrant, Sept. 3, 1705, to take up 500 acres, one moiety of 1000 acres originally purchased from William Penn by Richard Hands of Swarford, in the County of Oxon, England. On 11 (Jan.) 28, 1705, he obtained another warrant for 484 acres, the remainder, deducting liberty land near the city of Philadelphia. By virtue of the first warrant he took 384 acres on the West Branch of the Brandywine, just South of the present borough of Coatesville, and the following year 600 acres were surveyed for him, including the present site of Unionville. He afterwards obtained several hundred acres extending from the last tract to the north-east corner of East Marlborough, and received his patent Nov. 25, 1717, for 1100 acres in this township. He was an active citizen; a Justice of the Peace, and of the Common Pleas for several years. His wife Rachel, who was living in 1736, was perhaps the mother of his children, which so far as known were: (1) William. (2) Richard. (3) Joseph, m. Jean Woodward. (4) James. (5) John. (6) Stephen. From then on no mention is made of him beyond that made by Reason R. Harlan (No. 229), in his journal under date of Sept. 12, 1825, at St. Louis, Mo., wherein he speaks of an Ezekiel Harlan having been at that place in 1816, as he had that day been informed. “ Among the papers of James Starr Lippincott, of Philadelphia, I find a list of the descendants of Caleb Starr, written in pencil, not very distinct, with few dates and no definite residences. Caleb settled in 1835 near Evansville, Indian Territory, where he died in 1844, aged 86 years. He married Nancy Harlan, who died in 1841, aged 81 years. They had 15 children.

"It was one of the Harlans who married a Cherokee Indian chief's daughter. Caleb Starr married the daughter of his relative, whoever he was. I cannot tell whether Caleb was John Starr's son or not, but I am led to the belief that he was. Caleb's mother was Mary Bryant, of Philadelphia. I do not think that Nancy Harlan could have been so old."—COPE, 1890.

Reason R. Harlan (No. 229) in his journal:

"4th of the week and 9th of the month [Nov., 1825]: "I am now in Calloway County, [Missouri] I am 75 miles from Saint Charles . . . While at breakfast along came the mail stage, and he [the driver] took me in and came 10 miles and stoped for breakfast . . .

"The 5th of the week and 10th of the month . . . I am in Boone County at a relations that I knew not of George Sexton, his grandmother was a Harlan, my first cousin, though he and his wife are on a visit to Alabama, but the family found me out and they are very kind and respectful and I am overjoyed for I never expected to see or hear of them again in this world. Yesterday the stage drove 66 miles and I rode 45 miles. I am now 25 miles from Franklin. How strange it was that I should be all day yesterday in company with a relation and know it not until night.*

"The third of the week and sixth of the month [Dec., 1825]: I am still at George Sexton's, and yesterday to my unspeakable joy the Old Man and his wife came from Tennessee and Alabama . . . I was overjoyed to greet my dear cousin George as I had not seen him since he was a sucking babe. . . .

"February 28, 1826: I am at George Sexton's, this is the last day that I can ever enjoy the blessed company of this family. May the Lord direct us to make such suitable preperation as shall insure us a happy meeting at the right hand of God. . . .

[He intended leaving these relations the next day, but the stage was loaded and he did not go.]

"March 3, 1826: I am at George Sexton's waiting the stage to return.

"March 5, 1826: I am still at George Sexton's. . . .

"March 6, 1826: I am still at George Sexton's, and the waters are so high that the stage cannot pass for sometime.

"March 7, 1826 [Still there, but he says]: Tomorrow I must take my farewell of these dear relations to see them no more in this world. The stage has come in.

"March 8, 1826: I am at Paris Ellison's waiting the arrival of Isham Sexton the stage driver. Yesterday I came here. . . ."

"My grandparents and great-grandparents came from Maryland to Kentucky at the same time, I think about the year 1801. My father was eight years of age at the time and he was born in 1793. Our house was burned in 1864 and all books and papers were destroyed, together with my mother's and grandmother's family bibles, so that all records we might have had were lost.

"In regard to Joel and Ruth, I can relate nothing further. They lived and died so many years ago that now there is no one living that I can go to for information. I do not know when or where they were born, nor married, and not exactly when they came to Kentucky. If not at the time when my grandparents came, that they followed two or three years afterwards is my best impression. "When George Harlan and Catherine thought that it was safe to do so, they removed to and settled upon the 'Rolling Fork,' a branch of Salt River, now in Mercer Co. After living there about two years the fear of the Indians caused them to abandon the place, as the entire family of one of their nearest neighbors had been killed. They removed to near Danville, where they lived the remainder of their days, a period of more than 50 years."—K. L. H. (No. 3099).

Mrs. Celia Webster (No. 3030), whose mother was Celia Bonham, a first cousin to George Harlan (No. 220), in a letter to the compiler in 1891, said in speaking of him: "Mother said that uncle Harlan was a splendid swimmer. She used to tell about him and another man being pursued by the Indians at one time. They were not far from a river, and the Indians were fast gaining upon them, so fast indeed that he told his companion that the only chance for their lives would be to swim the river. His companion could not swim, and begged him to save him but he could not and save his own life too. So when they reached the water he sprang in and dived, the Indians all the time shooting at him when he would come to the surface. He would remain under the water as long as he could, and the Indians shooting in the direction he dived. He at last reached the land in safety, but his companion was killed."

“December 18, 1826: I am still with this blessed family, and this day Davis [No. 847] and I are going to see cousin George, uncle Jacob's son whom I have not seen in 50 years [1776—Ed.]. December 19, 1826: I am at cousin George Harlan's, and am much pleased with him and his blessed wife and family. They are very rich, and although they are, they showed me great love and kindness. December 20: Cousin George, his wife and I went to see his daughter Polly who is married to Charles Fleece. They were pleased to see me. December 21: This day George and I are going to see his daughter Susanna, who lives about 6 miles off. December 25: I am now starting to the widow Harlan's [No. 216] and part with these dear relatives with great reluctance. This day at parting with my dear little cousin George both him and I wept.”—From REASON R. HARLAN'S Journal.

221. Elizabeth Harlan⁶ (Jacob,⁵ James⁴), b. 6, 19, 1765, in Cumberland Co., Pa.; em. 1782 to Lincoln Co., Ky.; d. there about 1837, in (now) Boyle Co.; bur. in b. g. near the village of Perryville. She m. soon after reaching Kentucky, possibly before going there, or about 1782/3, Jeremiah Briscoe (farmer), b. 10, 14, 1760; d. 1, 12, 1823, in Lincoln, (now in) Boyle Co., Ky.; bur. near Perryville.

Through reading the silent pages of Reason R. Harlan's Journal, now yellow with age, the compiler has been permitted, as it were, to catch glimpses of the life and character of Elizabeth Harlan Briscoe. He regrets that more of her life's doings have not been preserved to us all, and especially to her descendants. But for the silent pages of this old journal her life would have ended without one word of testimony to her worth of character having been preserved. “Betty” Briscoe was one of the best of women. Kind to all, and with a heart beating in full sympathy with the poor and afflicted and distressed mankind. Many people in her day could rise up and say: “God bless ‘Betty’ Briscoe!” for she was one of God's noble Christian women.

222. Jesse Harlan ⁶ (Stephen,⁵ James ⁴), farmer, miller, b. about 1760 in Berkeley Co., Va. (now in W. Va.) ; d. Morgan Co., Va. ; bur. there. He m. in the latter county, Mary Ambrose (—), b. Chester Co., Pa., date unknown ; a dau. of Jesse Ambrose. The compiler could not determine whose widow she was. Mary d. in Morgan Co. By her first husband she had a dau., Nancy, who lived with her mother and step-father. Jesse had issue :

- 884. Aaron, b. — ; d. 1855 ; m. Catherine Bechdole and Eleanor Vanausdale.
- 885. Achsah, b. 1, 15, 1790 ; d. 9, 6, 1865 ; m. Joseph Bechdole, 6, 14, 1813.

- 887. Stephen, b. — ; m. Catherine Unger. No further record.

The neighborhood to which Jesse Harlan moved in Morgan Co., Va., was then thinly settled. Where he lived we are told that the mountains came near to the river's edge on both sides, and that it was rather an undesirable place. Jesse Harlan was unfortunate. He first built a powder mill, which proved to be a failure. He then built a saw mill. Water was his motive power, and it seems that he did not build his dams in the proper manner, for every spring freshet would wash them out. At the time of his death he was badly in debt, and his son Aaron, by building properly, put the lumber business in order and paid off the father's debt. The son was a great man to push business, and kept the mill moving day and night.

Nancy Harlan was never m. After Aaron's first wife d., she kept house for him. At the time of his second marriage her earnings enabled her to purchase a farm in Ohio, where she lived and d.

225. James Harlan ⁶ (Stephen,⁵ James ⁴), farmer, b. 4 Mo., 1769, in Berkeley Co., (now in) W. Va. ; d. 1, 19, 1829, in Madison Co., Ala. ; bur. there at Huntsville. The names of her parents could not be learned by the compiler. With the exception of the youngest three, their children were b. in Berkeley Co., Va. The youngest three were b. in Madison Co., Ala. She m. (2) 2, 19, 1843, at Tuscumbia, E. W. Mathews, and removed with him to Mississippi in 1847 and settled on a farm near Tupelo, Lee Co., and where she d. 9, 13, 1890,

229. Reason Rawlings Harlan ⁶ (Moses,⁵ James ⁴), harness maker, Methodist, was b. 6, 28, 1758, in Berkeley Co., Va., (now in) W. Va.; d. about the years 1835 to 1838 at the home of his cousin, "Bettie" Briscoe (No. 221), near the village of Perryville, Mercer Co., Ky., and was bur. in a b. g. near that village.

From the fragments of a journal kept by him through the greater part of the last quarter of a century of his life, and from "what mother has told us," two things of importance have been gleaned. The first is, that he was entirely without hearing in the last years of his life, and that all communication with him was by writing and making signs. That he had not always been so is apparent from the fact that a portion of his life was spent as a soldier in the American Army in the War for Independence, as will appear later on in this memoir. He in all his writings, so far found, gave no explanation of it. The second is, that while he had been at one time m., his wife had long been d. The compiler is forced to say that he has no information as to who she was, where she was b., where she d., or where she was bur. In all his writings there is nothing concerning her. She was deceased prior to 1826, and had been for many years. She had borne him at least two children: a son and a dau. The former had d. in childhood, the latter, who while then living was somewhere beyond his financial ability to go to her, notwithstanding his oftentimes repeated desire so to do. This desire extends through all the pages of this now yellow old journal, and yet he never speaks of her as m. or unm. His relations on both sides of his family were numerous and were scattered from Virginia, through Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama.

Reason Rawlings Harlan was by trade a harness and saddle maker, and in the last 25 years of his life was itinerate in his character and habits, that is, he spent his days going from home to home among his kinspeople, working when it pleased him to do so, and thence on to another, as he felt the desire. He was industrious and energetic, and was the best contented when diligently employed or when reading some good book. He was for his day and time and opportunities a well educated man: the writings in his journal bearing out this assertion. A great reader, he spent many hours reading and enjoying the writers of history and religious works. And while by birth-right a member of the Society of Friends, his old age found him a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. And again, while his birth place had been in a slave state, and his people resided throughout a greater portion of the slave section and were the holders and owners of slaves in many instances, he was nevertheless an earnest and outspoken anti-slavery man himself, and this and by his having the faith of his convictions quite frequently made his welcome cold and his stay short by his remarks upon that subject.

At some time and place in his life he had been made a Master Mason, but he only refers to it in one or two places in his writings. In one instance he mentions that while travelling through the city of Baltimore, Md., the brethren, unsolicited on his part, made him a very substantial donation in money, which gave him great happiness and caused him to record some very pleasant remarks about them in this old journal.

Reason R. Harlan was a Rawlings upon his mother's side. He was a great grandson of William Rawlings, one of four brothers, William, Aaron, John and Jehosophat, who came from England prior to Lord Baltimore, and settled in Maryland, not far from where Annapolis now stands. The name of his grandfather is not certainly known—it was probably Reason Rawlings, for whom Reason, the younger, was named.

In 1826, Reason R. Harlan was visiting at the home of Sarah Harlan, the widow of James Harlan (No. 216), in Boyle Co., Ky. While there he was induced to write an account of the early history of the Harlan family. The following was left at the "old homestead", and a copy sent to the compiler. "At that time there being a great persecution of the people called Quakers, and the family being of that denomination they were in great danger. Four brothers concluded to come to Pennsylvania, and left all their property in Yarmouth and took ship at Liverpool, bound for America. The eldest two had families; the others were single. They were as follows: George, Michael, Henry, and James."

"Soon after they had put to sea a storm came on which wrecked the vessel so much indeed, that they were obliged to put back to land, and being nearest to Ireland, landed there. James, the youngest, was so terrified that he would not enter again, but stayed in Ireland. The other three came to America and settled in Pennsylvania on the Delaware River."

"Michael's family mostly went to New York. How many sons he had I do not know. Henry died childless. We are all of George's branch, who had six sons. . . . The James of Salt River, Kentucky, is of George's family. The two Methodist preachers, John and Barton, of Barren Co., [Ky.] are of John's family. [That is, John, the grandson of George, the elder.] . . . The Harlans of Ohio are of Yarmouth George's family."

The above is not all accurate, but the writings of Reason R. Harlan have on the whole been a great aid in the compilation of this history.

THE WOODWARD FAMILY.—Richard Woodward, the founder of the family, purchased, 1 (March), 6, 1687, from John Simcox, a tract of land containing two hundred and thirty acres, in Thornbury Twp., Chester Co., Pa., as appears by later deeds.

John Simcox had purchased from William Penn, before leaving England, five thousand acres in Pennsylvania, and of this one thousand three hundred and fifty were laid out in one tract, in the western part of Thornbury, in the year 1684. Upon this part Richard Woodward settled and some of his children were b. there. In those days deeds were acknowledged in open court, and a note thereof made by the clerk.

"December 4th. 1688,—John Simcox made over a deed dated 'y^e 6th day of y^e 1st month 1687,' for two hundred and thirty acres of land lying in Thornbury, unto Richard Woodward, by his attorney, John Hodskins (Hoskins).

"August (6th month) 1689: 'Ordered that Richard Woodward be supervisor of y^e High Ways for y^e township of Thornbury for y^e next ensuing yeare.'"

Richard Woodward, II, was probably b. in England, as he was of marriageable age in 1695. He m. Esther Davis, they having declared their intentions at Concord Monthly Meeting, 1, 11, and 3, 13, 1695, but the marriage certificate was never recorded. Richard obtained from his father, Dec. 10, 1698, one hundred and thirty acres of land in Thornbury, and afterwards purchased from Jacob, a son of John Simcox, one hundred acres more, by deed of September 9, 1708. His first wife dying, he m. Deborah Stanfield, a dau. of Francis and Grace, who came from Garten, in Cheshire, in the "Endeavor," of London, arriving 7, 29, 1683. Deborah was probably the mother of most of his children.

* Woodward Family Genealogical History.

† See No. 352.

By deed of lease and release, dated May 23 and 24, 1724, he and his wife, Deborah, conveyed 222 acres in Thornbury to George Townsend, of Oyster Bay, Long Island, New York, and by a deed of June 3, 1724, he obtained one thousand acres in what is now West Bradford Twp., the south and east borders of the tract now forming the south and east lines of the township, it being the southeast corner of said township.

This tract was patented Dec. 8, 1690, to Daniel Smith, of Marlboro, in Wiltshire, England, from whom it descended to his grandson, John Smith, son of Daniel Smith, Jr. The deed is still in existence, well preserved, and in the possession of George Martin, of Marshalton. It is too lengthy to insert a copy of it here in full, there having been greater exactness in the description of land in the early days than at present, but the following is a part:

"This Indenture tripartite made this third day of June in the fourth year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lord George of Great Britian France & Ireland, King, the Defender of the Faith Anno Dom. 1724, between John Smith, of London, in the Kingdom of Great Britian of the first part, Thomas Chalkley of the city of Philadelphia in the province of Pennsylvania, of the second part, and Richard Woodward of the county of Chester the third part yeoman. Whereas Samuel Carpenter, William Markham, Robert Turney, and John Goodson, the former commissioners of William Penn, Esq., late proprietor of s^d province by a certain grant or patent under the hands & seal of the said province bearing date on or about the 8th day of December Ano Dom 1690 for the consideration therein named did grant and convey unto Daniel Smith formerly of Marlborough in the county of Wiltshire, a certain tract or parcel of land situate lying and being in the said county of Chester beginning at a black oak being a corner of Thomas Langharns land, thence east northeast by the same land four hundred poles to a corner, thence north northwest four hundred perches to a corner, thence west southwest four hundred perches to a corner, thence southeast four hundred perches to the place of beginning containing one thousand acres to hold him the said Daniel Smith his heirs or assigns forever he paying thereto the property or his heirs at or upon the first day of March in every year at the town of Chester, and English silver shilling or value thereof in coyn currency for each one hundred acres of said land to such person or persons as may be appointed to receive the same, &c."

Upon their removal to their new purchase they obtained the following certificate from the Monthly Meeting of Concord to that of Newark:

"From our Monthly Meeting held at Chechester the second day of y^e 9th month 1724, to the Monthly Meeting of Newark, sendeth Greeting. Whereas Richard Woodward, his wife and family late of Thornbury being removed and settled within the verge of your meeting having requested of us a certificate in order to be joyned to you. This may therefore Certify you that they have been of an orderly life and conversation and diligent in keeping to meetings and as for their worldly affairs they are settled to a general satisfaction as far as we can understand so we recommend them to your christian care. Newark Monthly Meeting, 4th Month 3d 1727: "Bradford Preparative meeting presents Richard Woodward for an Elder in the place of Peter Collins to the consideration of this monthly meeting, which is approved of till further order."

In 1737 Bradford Monthly Meeting was established with its two branches of Bradford and Cain, and Richard Woodward was reappointed an Elder for Bradford at the first meeting held 3, 19, 1737. Being again a widower he obtained a certificate to Newark, 8, 18, 1739, to marry Susan Cureton, of New Castle Co., Del., a widow. "John Baird, born in Scotland about the year 1730, was an officer in the British Army. He crossed the Atlantic Ocean with General Braddock in 1755. He married Catherine McLean, or McClean, in Philadelphia, and lost his life at 'Grant's Fort,' near the now city of Pittsburg, Pa., after the defeat of General Braddock. His widow, who is supposed to have had relatives in that neighborhood, made her home near Kennet Square, Chester Co., Pa., and it is believed supported herself by teaching, while her son grew up and studied medicine." *

"Absalom Baird was commissioned Surgeon, March 20, 1782, in Colonel Jeduthan Baldwin's Regiment of Artificers of Pennsylvania. This corps as it was called at first, was raised by the directions of General Washington, in the summer of 1777. Benjamin Flower, formerly Commissary of Military Stores of the Flying Camp in 1776, was made Colonel, and Commissary of Military Stores. Captain Jesse Roe's company was one of the original companies. Companies were stationed at Carlisle, and Philadelphia, and their duties were to cast cannon, bore guns, and prepare ammunition for the army." †

"He was also a Judge of the Common Pleas Court of Washington County, Pa., to which he was appointed, March 3, 1789." ‡

WASHINGTON [PA.], 27th June 1794.

Sir:—I have completed the draft required by your orders of the 21st May, and wish to know whether it will be proper to employ them for guarding the frontiers, if it should be necessary, or call the other Militia to that service. I had made a draft to march to Presqu' Isle, and the men has rendezvoused before your orders to Countermand it arrived.

The suspension of the law for laying out the town on the lake has created considerable uneasiness in the Country, especially since the people are convinced that the Northern Indians are hostility disposed. Our frontiers have been hitherto safe, and Captain Seals has exerted himself much to prevent any apprehension of Danger. He has a fine Company and well disciplined.

I am with great respect,

Your most obedient servant,

A. BAIRD.

Inspector 1st Washington Brigade.

To His Excellency Governor Mifflin.

Nottingham Monthly Meeting, 3, 19, 1796: "Whereas Jeremiah Harlan hath had a birthright amongst us the people called Quakers, but not duly regarding the Grace of God in his heart he has almost wholly neglected the attendance of our meetings, attending diversions and consenting to have his name entered as a Light Horseman, for which libertine conduct he has been tenderly dealt with in order for his restitution, but our endeavors not having the desired effect we hereby testify that the said Jeremiah Harlan hath no longer a right of membership amongst us, until he experiences true repentance."

THE STUMP FAMILY.—John Stump and his wife Mary were Prussians of wealth and culture, who em. from Prussia to Maryland about the year 1700. The name of his European ancestors is said to have been spelled Stumpf. John Stump was a cousin of Baron Frederick von der Trenck (the younger of the two famous kinsmen of that name), who figured conspicuously during the reign of Frederick the Great. John Stump purchased a large tract of land, near the present town of Perryville, Cecil Co., Md., where he d. 1747, having divided his property between his only surviving children, John and Henry.

In 1751 Henry Stump removed to the valley of Deer Creek (then a part of Baltimore Co.), where he purchased the "Walnut Dale Farm," which has ever since remained in the family; it now (1887) belonging to his grandson Dr. David Harlan [No. 1355]. He resided on this farm until his death, and with his brother John was bur. in the family b. g., which they established there.

Henry Stump m. about the year 1755, Rachel Perkins, of Baltimore, Md., some of whose ancestors are said to have come over in the Mayflower. Very little is known of her family. Three of her brothers—Reuben, William, and Elihu—were residents of what is now Harford Co., Md., and in 1772/3 Reuben Stump bought of one Thomas Miller 200 acres of land, which he sold two years afterwards, and removed to "Ten Mile Creek." Reuben Perkins owned a tract of land on Susquehanna, bearing the unfathomable name of "Eight Rap" (which might well be taken for, "A trap," to catch the unwary philologist), on which Lapidum now stands.*

John Stump (John) was a merchant, and the owner of a number of mills in Baltimore, Virginia, and Harford Co., Md. By the extensive business in which he was engaged and the numerous commercial ventures, he acquired a fortune which was immense for those days—his property shortly after his death being valued at $1,317,000. An interesting episode of his career was the building of a vessel at Rock Run, Harford Co., Md., in 1803, as this was probably the only ocean-going vessel ever built there. He called the vessel "Hetty," in honor of his cousin Esther, dau. of his uncle, Henry Stump, who three years before had m. Jeremiah Harlan [No. 356]. The "Hetty" was a fleet, staunch little craft. She was mostly employed in the West Indian trade, and by the large returns she brought her owner well repaid his exceptional enterprise in building her. Esther Harlan was present at the launching of her namesake and herself performed the act of christening her. As the vessel glided into the water, she broke a bottle of wine over her bow and uttered this couplet:

"From rocks and sands, and enemies' hands,
May God preserve thee, Hetty."

There is in existence a Meeting Book, which records the deaths, and marriages performed among the Quakers of Half Moon Valley, and it bears date in the beginning of 1804."*

“Another attempt having been made by the Committee to visit Joseph Harlan, without success, they have prepared a Testimony, having informed him thereof by letter, which is approved and signed.”

Nottingham Monthly Meeting, 7, 29, 1797:

“The Committee in the case of Joseph Harlan, having attended to their appointment, now offer a testimony which is approved and signed.

“Whereas Joseph Harlan, a son of Solomon Harlan, had a right of membership amongst the people called Quakers, but for want of attention to the manifestations of Divine Grace in his heart, which would have preserved him from error, gave way to unwatchfulness, and a lukewarmness in disposition so much as to neglect the attendance of our religious meetings, and has also married a woman not professing with us, by the assistance of a hireling minister.

“We therefore after endeavoring to convince him of his weakness, do testify that we do not own him as in membership with us untill he may be favored with a sense of his outgoing, and with a more circumspect walk be enabled to condemn the same to the satisfaction of this meeting, which is our desire that he may.

“JOHN CHURCHMAN, Clerk.”

Joseph McMinn was a very prominent man of affairs. In 1789 he was elected Orderly Sergeant in the company in which he lived. Later he commanded the company, and in 1799 was put in command of the entire regiment. He resigned his command in 1807. He was a member of the first General Assembly of the state of Tennessee, and was chosen (March, 1796) to bear the constitution to congress. About the same year he was elected a member of the Senate and held that position until 1811.

In the summer of 1815, Joseph McMinn was elected to the governorship of Tennessee, and the following September moved to Nashville, the capital. His public life was always a very busy one; he spent the entire winter of 1820 in the city of Washington. He closed his public service at the expiration of his term of office, Sept. 27, 1821.

Joseph McMinn had only one child. He and his first wife raised Hetty, the dau. of his brother John, the mother having d. when she was but a few days old. His "brother Robert's oldest son of full age" also lived with him, though whether as a boy is unknown. Joseph was at one time tavernkeeper, and farmer of about 100 acres of land. His estate was very valuable, and he was the owner of a score of negro slaves.

The following letters, written by Joseph McMinn, are of interest:

[Addressed]

To MR. JOEL BAILY,
Chester County, Pennsylvania,
Chatham Post Office, Londongrove.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., 6th February, 1817.

Dear Brother & Sister.

Your esteemed favor of 24 July, 1814 came safe to hand about the first of September following. My wife Rebecca and myself read the contents with much pleasure.

I had delayed giving you an answer until about the time she took sick which put a period to her life and also to writing the letter. My wife took sick on the 13th of December 1814 and died on 11 January 1815. On the same died a young negro man whom I had raised from a child. A young man who lived in my family and procured the coffin for my wife was himself buried three weeks after. Two other young men who lived at my house took sick, both went home to their father's and died. A third shared a very dangerous fate, tho did not die. Jenny my only child on the first day of February same year, leaving not quite three weeks between her and her stepmother's death. My family of black people, twelve in number, all lying sick at the same time, some speechless and nearly all senseless. As the grown ones afterward told me, they knew nothing of the sickness and death of their mistress nor fellow servants who died. During the whole of these scenes it pleased God to continue me in perfect health . . . without the slightest change.

Upon the return of spring my family began to recover, which invigorated my body and mind, and having lost considerable by breaking up house on the death of my first wife, I determined not to fall into the same snare again, and commenced a very large crop of corn, and resumed housekeeping without a single soul to assist me except my negroes, to whom . . . it pleased God to bestow a very liberal share of good health.

I wished to spend the balance of my days in retirement. But to my utter astonishment on the 6th of July, a very lengthy address was handed me from a large and respectable class of my fellow citizens soliciting me to offer for Governor of Tennessee. Having been frequently chided for leaving my country's service, I thought I would give my name, and did so and wonderful to tell I was elected in twenty six days after receiving the address alluded to, without having the wish or expectation of being elected.

In answer to this please give me the latest and best accounts of our people to whom I wish to be remembered in the language of friendship, and to each of your family in particular. Please answer this on receipt and be assured of a constant correspondence.

Your affectionate brother,

JOSEPH MCMINN.

I have not paid the postage,* as I know that letters are more frequently attended to when not paid. When you address your letter to me do it as follows.

JOSEPH MCMINN

Governor of the State of Tennessee,
Knoxville.

NEW CANTON, Hawkins County, Tennessee.

4 January 1823.

Dear Brother & Sister.

Your very much esteemed letter of 2 of September 1821 came to hand by due course of mail and would have been answered long since had not a variety of causes combined to prevent it being done. First I was in a day or two of retiring from the office of Governor when your letter came to hand, which I had held during the period prescribed by the Constitution of the state, and secondly I enjoyed a very delicate state of health and had to travel 275 miles to my residence where I arrived on the 19 November 1821.

I am truly sorry to hear the situation of Uncle George and Aunt Sarah, who have both witnessed better times, and indeed it always fills my heart with sympathy to see or hear that any portion of my fellow beings are spending the evenings of their lives in poverty and distress . . . tho the charge lies at the door of by far the greater part of those afflicted, nor does He withhold from any the means of providing a comfortable support.

I have on a former occasion † advised you of my marriage to third wife and now I have the painful task of stating to you that we are separated, by her resolving to remain in Nashville with her relatives instead of coming to this place; upon which I returned her every article of property which came into my hands by marriage, and gave her $2000.00 out of my own estate. . . . Immediately upon my arrival here I applied to one of John McMinn's daughters (Hetty by name) who was raised by my first wife and myself, her mother having died when this young woman was but a few days old, and since which time she has kept house for me and is a fine promising girl, and if she continues to please me until my death or some other change takes place . . . I have proposed to make her more deeply interested in my estate than any of her cousins.

My brother Robert's oldest son of full age lives with me but he is not well calculated to live and conduct so large a business as mine . . . if your son Robert or any of your children, married or unmarried, think proper to come here, I will place them upon the same footing as Hetty my niece stands, and give a share of the proceeds of the farm, or standing wages as they might choose. I live in a very public place and keep a tavern for the accomodation of travellers and also a grocery for purchasing supplies for the house, and am making money pretty fast, hard as the times are. I cultivate about 100 acres of land, and have about twenty negroes.

. In conclusion . . . as we cannot have the pleasure of conversing face to face, let us avail ourselves of the next best opportunity of writing to each other. . . . Give my love to your family and relatives . . . whilst I remain your affectionate Brother,

JOSEPH McMINN.

† "At a Special Court of Common Pleas, held at the house of Jesse Hughes, on the 28th day of March in the year of our Lord, 1810. Present:—the Honorable Francis Dunlavy Esqr. presiding Judge; Jesse Hughes, Thomas Hickenson Esqrs. associates. The other officers of the Court were Jonathan Harlan, Sheriff, Etc.,

"The Grand Jury was impaneled for the term June 1810, and an Indictment against Cornelius Quick, was the only one found, and that was for horse stealing. This was returned on the 19th day of June 1810, and Quick was placed on trial the next day, and was found guilty as indicted. The sentence was: the thief to receive fifty stripes upon his naked back, on Saturday the 27th day of June 1810, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and pay a fine of $20.00 & costs; also to be imprisoned for 10 days.

"During the trial the defendant was confined to an apple tree,—which was near at hand—by a log chain. After the verdict was rendered, Quick requested the Sheriff—Jonathan Harlan—to retire with him for a short time. This seemed a reasonable request, and it obtained a ready consent. As they walked away he manifested considerable more nimbleness of step than had been noticed before, until a step or two in advance was secured when he bounded away and was soon beyond the reach of successful pursuit in the heavy timber that then surrounded the present County seat. It is suspected now, and was then, that Quick owed his escape to the tender heart of the Quaker Sheriff."

Prior to his election as Sheriff he was Tax Collector for the County; the following being in the possession of an old family in the county.

"Received of Caleb Lucas, for his state and county tax, 1 dollar & 34 cents this 18th day of October 1809 by me.

"JONATHAN HARLAN."

Jacob Hale (the family name then and now) was one of the earliest settlers upon Todd's Fork. In 1805, accompanied by John Hadley and Isaac Harvey, he came to view the country. They travelled on horseback, coming through Highland Co. (Ohio). They found it a "goodly land." They returned to North Carolina, resolved to part with their possessions there and remove with their families to Ohio as soon as possible. Jacob Hale was largely engaged in business there, and owning considerable land, it took him sometime to close up his affairs.

The three were brothers-in-law, Jacob Hale having m. Martha Harvey, and John Hadley, Lydia Harvey, who were sisters to Isaac Harvey. They selected a tract of land upon Todd's Fork (a branch of the Little Miami River), then owned by Robert Pollard, as suitable for making them a home, as also others of their people, who were expected to come with them. The tract of land contained over two thousand acres and was purchased by Isaac Harvey and his brother Eli jointly from the owner in Richmond, Va.

In 1807, Jacob Hale came with his family to Ohio and settled upon three hundred acres of this tract of land. His children, except the youngest, were b. in Randolph Co., N. C. About this time Allen Langley and his wife, Ruth, came to Ohio and settled on these lands, where she d. in 1828. “Charles Crow was a Missionary Baptist minister of considerable note in Perry county. He was from home a good part of the time, preaching and holding protracted meetings. He was very active in mission work, and preached largely to the poorer classes when he could reach them.”

The following is a part of the inscription upon the tombstone: "Ordained August 30, A. D. 1807: was taken to Immanuel's bosom on the 12th of June, 1845, and now lies in this silent grave. . . He was eminent in piety, of humane, benevolent and charitable disposition. He departed this life in the seventy fifth year of his age:

'And like his Master, was by some despised;
Like Him, by many others loved and prized.
Servant of God, well done. Thy glorious warfare past.
The battle fought, the race is run, and thou art crowned at last.'

Joseph Gist Harlan's advantages for an education were limited, but he attended the country school, studied well, read a good deal and took advantage of every opportunity to improve himself. He lived on his father's old farm on Fair Forest Creek, Union District, S. C. He was modest and unpretentious, and a law-abiding citizen. About 1856, he and his family moved to Union where he conducted a boarding house, and a saddlery and harness shop. He was generous, even to a fault. He was fond of fine horses and dogs, and was a good judge of both. His wife was a fitting companion, heartily sympathizing with him in all his pleasures and later in his misfortune.

Before the Civil War he was a colonel in the militia. When the war broke out he enlisted in the Holcombe Legion, and after that raised a company of his own cavalry, of which he was captain—Co. K, 5th Reg., Confederate Cavalry, it was—and formed a part of the famous Hampton Legion, which served so gallantly in many battles. He was a true and faithful soldier, without reproach among his comrades. He was wounded in the summer of 1864, and was at home when the war ended. He remained in the saddlery business until his death in 1884, but never fully recovered from his wound.

He was a good Mason and held a high office in the lodge. He was a faithful Christian; was a loyal supporter of the cause of education.

“Father was one of the best of men—so upright, conscientious and good. . . . Our home in the country was an ideal home. Our home here was one of the prettiest in the city [Union], but father had to sell it when he came home from the war, as most people were bankrupt then. Later on he bought this lot on which I now live, built a cottage on one corner and we were very comfortable in our own home again after boarding so long. We had a nice young orchard. . . . I taught school for years, also music, painting and fancy work. . . . and with it all we have a right happy life.”—M. L. H.

His pathetic exhortations and fervent prayers will long be remembered by his congregation and acquaintances. Nancy, the wife, joined the church soon after their marriage, and remained a faithful servant of Christ until her death, her life running out in acts of kindness to the poor and afflicted, her generous impulses permeating the hearts she came in contact with and blending her life with theirs for a higher moral and Christian elevation."

From the journal of Reason R. Harlan (No. 229):

"July 30, 1829: I am now 17 miles from Crawfordsville. . . . Came to one Schooleys', a dear old Quaker, 8 miles from Crawfordsville, and just as I dismounted from my mare it began to rain, and they fed my mare, and I ate dinner, and they would not charge me anything. Came on to Crawfordsville, and stoped at Mr. Ristens, and they used me very kind, and did not charge me. Came on ten miles up Sugar Creek, to John Harlan, son of cousin John [No. 208], Grandson of uncle John [No. 44], and brother, to Barton Harlan [No. 803] and I was overjoyed to see them. They live in Montgomery County, and are quite well off. He has a numerous family, and was once a preacher. [Member of the Disciples of Christ.—Ed.]

"August 1, 1829: I am at Cousin Johns'. Three of his children are sick. I am much pleased with them, for they are a blessed industrious family. But I am sorry that John does not preach any more, the cause I do not know. I went this day to see Jehu, Ambrose, and James, and stayed all night with Jehu, and was well pleased with his nice economy, and industry.

"August 3, 1829: Still at Cousin Johns', and on the 6th of this month, his son Asa is to be married to a Quaker girl of the name of Mote, and I am urged to stay to the wedding.

"August 7, 1829: Yesterday we went to James', and saw Asa and his bride joined together. There was a large collection of very decent people who behaved well, and there I got acquainted with Asa's wife's mother; very nice old Quaker woman, her name is Mote, and she is from Georgia.

"August 8, 1829: Still here Yesterday the weddingers came here.

"August 10, 1829: At Cousin John's. This day a dear old Quaker by the name of Cox, and his son, and his wife, came here. They have bought John's farm, and have come to close the bargain and pay the money.

" August 11, 1829: John and his wife have gone to close up their trade with Friend Cox, and make him the deed and receive the money.

" August 15, 1829: Still here, and I have consented to go with John and see a large Prarie, that he is going to purchase.

" August 24, 1829: I am now starting from John Harlans'. . . . Came 30 miles and staid all night at Isaiah Harlans' [No. 712], from South Carolina, brother to Samuel [No. 703], near Connersville, Indiana. This is Parke County, on little Raccoon Creek, nine miles from Rockville. He is a very well looking man, and has seven children. . . . I find him like many others, a cold professor in the Baptist faith. He received us with joy, and showed us great kindness, as a christian, and relation.

" August 25, 1829: Started from Isaiah Harlans', and came 12 miles to Isaiah Motes, and found a kind Friendly man and woman."

Reason R. Harlan (No. 229) visited these people in 1829, while en route on horseback from Wheeling, (now in) W. Va., to Cincinnati. He says, in his journal:

"February 6th, 1829: . . . I find that I am within ten miles of Daniel Harlan's family.

"February 7th, 1829: . . . This morning I am starting to the widow Harlan's. . . . Came to Solomon Braden's, and saw young Daniel, and James, but Jehu and Samuel, live at Sandusky, 30 miles from here. This is in Richland county, ten miles from Mansfield, the county seat.

"February 8th, 1829: I am with Solomon, and his dear wife, and fine family. Elizabeth will come to see me.

"February 9th, 1829: At Solomon Braden's, and expect to stay some time. . . . Yesterday, Joseph Bault, and Betsey, came to see me, and I was truly glad to see them. She is a beautiful woman, and has a nice child.

"February 22nd, 1829: This is the Sabbath, and Solomon, and his wife, and I, are starting to Sandusky, in the sleigh, to see Samuel and Jehu.

"February 23d, 1829: I am at Jehu Harlan's, near Sandusky, and am well pleased with him and his wife, and Samuel and his. They have good farms, and the most timber on it I ever saw. They live within 6 miles from the place where Colonel Crawford was burned. They live on the head waters of the Scioto River. Samuel has one child, and Jehu has three.

"February 24th, 1829: At Samuel Harlan's, and we are about to start home. The snow is falling, and the weather is cold.

"February 25th, 1829: At Solomon Braden's, and it is well that we came home when we did. It changed to rain in the night, and the snow is almost gone.

"April 5th, 1829: This is the Sabbath. I am prepared to start, and must leave these dear relations, to see them no more until the Ressurrection. . . . Came to Mansfield, fed my mare, and got the direction to Mount Vernon, in Knox county."

James Harlan was b. in "The Old Stone House," at Harlan Station, and was raised on the "old farm." He studied law, and entered upon the practice of his chosen profession while yet a young man. He was a member of the Lower House of Congress from the Danville (Ky.) District, from 1835 to 1839. In 1840 he was elected Secretary of State, under the administration of Governor Robert P. Letcher. In 1850 he was appointed by Governor Crittenden to be one of the Commissioners to prepare a "Code of Practice in Civil and Criminal Causes" for that state. The next year he was nominated by the Whigs as a candidate for Congress in the Ashland (Ky.) District, but declined the nomination. In 1862, at the earnest request of President Lincoln, he accepted the office of United States District Attorney for Kentucky. He held that position at the time of his death.

Richard Davenport Harlan (No. 2964) was a lieutenant in the Mexican War. He belonged to Colonel Humphrey Marshall's regiment of cavalry, and participated in it with great credit at the battle of Buena Vista.

Henry Clay Harlan (No. 2967) was regarded as a very remarkable young man. In 1847, at the age of 17, he raised a company of men for the Mexican War, but as the quota of Kentucky was full, his company was not accepted.

Henry Clay wrote the following letter to James Harlan:

ASHLAND, KENTUCKY, Oct. 4, 1849.

My Dear Sir:

I saw in The Commonwealth, with sorrow and regret, the death announced of your son, my namesake. I tender to you, on this melancholy occasion, an expression of my sincere sympathy and condolence. I knew enough of him from frequent interviews and conversations with him, to appreciate the great distress which the lamentable event must have brought upon you and Mrs. Harlan and your other children. I have been in my time a great sufferer from the loss of children, and I can justly estimate the great grief which you now feel.

Time and a patient resignation and submission to the Will of Him who, having given us our children, has the right to take them from us when He pleases, can only heal the wounds inflicted, and mitigate the sorrows which the bereavement necessarily excited.

I hope that you and Mrs. Harlan will bear with fortitude and in a true spirit of Christianity, this sad and heavy dispensation.

I am your friend and obedient servant,
H. CLAY.

No further information concerning this family could ever be secured. During the Civil War the compiler had a brother, a member of an Ohio regiment, who met on the streets of Shelbyville, Ky., when returning to his regiment from service upon which he was then a detail—a Harlan—who invited him to his home near that village to spend the night. His duty requiring him to push on he was compelled to decline the proffered hospitality, and they parted in the streets of Shelbyville, now more than 50 years ago. The brother further said that this Harlan had at some time in his life lost an eye. The compiler is of the opinion that he was one of the sons as mentioned above.

Benjamin Harlan's childhood was quiet and unassuming. He spent his summers working upon the farm, and in winter attended "the old field school." After coming of age, his father gave him some little capital, and he began riding into the mountains, buying cattle, sheep and hogs, and taking them to market. For 20 years he almost lived in the saddle, constantly buying stock and driving it into Virginia and Alabama.

His plainness of dress and dislike of all show were noticeable. Upon one occasion he was presented with a gold-headed cane for being the strongest Whig in the state of Tennessee. He hid it in the sleeve of his coat until he reached home, when he quickly laid it away and went on using his hickory stick.

He was the owner of a large estate, but lost very heavily by the war. His home was a large old-fashioned frame, with a long veranda in front. Surrounded by massive trees, it was well named "The Oaks."

“Sarah Baird, fifth child, and elder of the two daughters of Doctor Absalom Baird, of the Army of the Revolution, and Susanna Brown (and granddaughter of John Baird, an officer in the army of General Forbes, which captured Fort Duquesne from the French, and his wife Catherine McClean), was born March 11, 1793, at Washington, Washington Co., Pa. Her mother died November 11, 1802, and her father October 27, 1805. Thus left an orphan at an early age, she was taken under the guardianship of Mrs. Alexander Reed, a near friend and family connection, for a time, or until her elder brothers had established homes for themselves.

“She has been described as a woman of unusual personal beauty and of rare mental culture; besides being gifted with a sweetness and loveliness of character that endeared her to all with whom she was brought in contact, and formed the bond of the closest and most affectionate attachment between herself and her brother William, who was nearest to her in point of age. While on a visit to Kentucky, she made the acquaintance of William Hodge, a planter and merchant, residing in Maysville, in that state, who was a widower with children living. They were married May 30, 1826, and thereafter resided either at Maysville or Flemingsburg, Ky., until her death, on May 30, 1833, a victim of the terrible scourge of cholera that prevailed there in that year.” (Written in 1879.)

David Harlan (No. 88), the grandfather of David Harlan here mentioned, removed from the neighborhood of Chatham, in Chester Co., Pa., to Harford Co., Md., about the closing years of the eighteenth century. While residing in Chester Co., he had been a large land and mill owner, and was, for his day, a wealthy and prosperous man. He indorsed for some friends in Wilmington who were engaged in exporting flour. By reason of losses consequent to the European wars, they became bankrupt, and David Harlan in his old age was brought to be in straitened circumstances. It was at this time that he removed to Harford Co. His son Jeremiah turned the knowledge he had acquired in his father's mills to good account and built flour mills in both Harford and Cecil counties.

In 1812, Jeremiah Harlan had bought from Reuben Stump the "Strawberry Hill" farm, the old homestead where each of his children was b. It was situated upon the bank of the Susquehanna, about 17 miles above Chesapeake Bay. It was here that David Harlan grew to manhood. His father built a stone school house and secured as tutor, Dr. Samuel Guile, a graduate of Harvard College. David later attended Rocky Run Academy, and in 1829 began the study of medicine. He graduated from the Washington Medical School of Baltimore in 1832. He immediately located in Kent Co., Md., and practised his profession there for three years.

In 1835 he was commissioned Assistant Surgeon of the United States Navy, and was ordered to report upon the ship Peacock, then starting on a trip around the world. David Harlan made many voyages, and visited places of note in all parts of the world.

During the spring and summer of 1866 he was a member of the Board of Visitors to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, and was also upon the board to examine candidates for that institution. In 1871 he was promoted to the rank of Medical Director, and in the fall of the same year was retired, having reached the age of 62, and having spent 36 years in active service.

"Moses Whitson was a man of strict integrity, good judgment, gentlemanly bearing and was sociable and hospitable. In early life he learned the profession of surveying and finished his school days at the 'Boarding School of Enoch Lewis,' in New Garden Township. He began his professional and business career by teaching school during the winter seasons and surveying in his home neighborhood. After his marriage, he purchased the home farm (from his father's estate), near Penningtonville (now Atglen), in Chester County, upon which he settled and superintended while he lived. His profession of surveying and that of conveyancing increased and extended until it reached throughout Chester and Lancaster counties, and while not a lawyer by profession he was well read in the law, and became the lawyer of the neighborhood. The distance from the county town caused his counsel and advice to be sought after in legal matters—which was always given gratuitously.

"Settling estates and writing legal papers, wills, deeds, mortgages, etc., became so heavy a task upon his time that he was obliged to employ a clerk for several years before his death. In those days legal papers were mostly written in full upon large sheets of parchment.

"He was one of the organizers and the first president of 'The Chester County Mutual Fire Insurance Company,' which position he held at his death. He was a consistent Friend, and served as clerk of Caln Quarterly Meeting of Friends for many years. A temperance advocate, both by precept and example, and a Whig in politics until he became convinced that it was better to withhold his vote than help support a party that sustained the bad principles of slavery.

"In constitution he was apparently robust, but he was broken down by business exposure and overwork, his useful life terminating in his fifty-fourth year."
