30. Thomas Samuel Harlan is the son of James White Harlan and Frances Bailey. He was born on 21 Jul 1828 in Gendower, Albemarle Co., VA. He died on 20 Mar 1900 in LaGrange, Oldham Co., KY. Reference ID was 74. Occupation was Farmer. Residence/Other in Bath Co., Va, W. VA, Ghent, KY. Burial in Valley of Rest Cemetery, La Grange, Oldham Co., KY.

Notes for Thomas Samuel Harlan:

General Notes:

Thomas Samuel was born at the home of his father. Thomas S. was a planter and farmer. The home place was said to have been named Glendower and sold by James White for Confederate money. It is still standing and is in use in Glendower, VA at this time (1954). The house is dark red brick with double colonial porches at each end. The records of the sale of the place were destroyed when the courthouse at Scottsville burned to the ground. At one time there were 1800 or more acres of land and they owned 300 slaves. I have heard my grandfather (written by Elizabeth Strickler) John Bailey say that his father and grandfather would never sell a slave unless at the slave's request. The case being that he wanted to marry a slave woman owed by someone else who would not sell her. I have heard my grandfather say that only about three slaves were willing to leave the family after the Civil War, but of course they no longer had the money to take care of them, as the money they had was Confederate. The place that they moved to after leaving Glendower was called Meadowbrook and burned to the ground leaving them nothing. I have heard John Bailey speak of being terribly hungry while playing with thousand dollar bills along with his brothers. He recalled along this time of there coming a day when there was nothing in the house to eat at all and of he and his brothers trying to eat some soap. The commissary later that day gave them the last small ration of meal that would be issued. The family of Thomas S. then moved to West Virginia (Bath County) where they resided until 1881 when they moved to Henry County, Kentucky on a farm between Ghent and Warsaw. In the latter years of his life he and his wife, Mary Fleming, lived at La Grange, Kentucky, in the house where his son Edgar Leslie Harlan later lived. His wife, Mary Fleming, was his first cousin once removed.

Thomas fought on the Confederate side in the Civil War. He enlisted in the C Company, 19th Infantry Regiment, Virginia on April 17, 1861 in Scottsville, VA

Obituary

Harlan. - Our beloved friend and neighbor, Thomas S. Harlan, lives today only in the hearts of friends, and indeed tenderly enshrined is he there. When worn and weary with life's afflictions, he laid down its burden to be clothed upon with immortality.

An exchange of a body full of disease for one glorified and immortal is a happy exchange, and enriches by far the receiver, and paints its lilies of hope on the tender, susceptible tablets of the hear, and is harmonious blending teacher Christ the sinners, the one who, with ransomed love, breaks the fetters of sin and gives immortal beauty and freedom to the spirit of man.

The subject of this sketch, loved and honored by all, first beheld the light of day in a palatial home in Albemarle county, Va., the day of his birth being July 21, 1829. He came of a family of noble ancestry, rocked in the luxury, the slave him and faithfully did his bidding. Reverses later in life overtook him, consequently acquainting him with more than one side of life. He served four years in the Civil War, and under the stars and stripes fought a valiant fight for the Confederacy,. He married to his surviving wife May 5, 195-, and nearly fifty years of connubial was their happy portion. There was born to them seven children - six sons and one daughter, the latter having died in infancy. There are left the faithful wife, the dutiful sons, and an affectionate sister, to mourn their loss. Bro. Harlan united with the Christian Church in Buckner, Ky., five years ago, and was baptized by Bro. W. T. Wells. While always a good man, strictly moral in his habits of life, yet since confessing Christ, he had been faithful and devoted to the church. He was a true husband, a noble brother and indulgent father, a typical neighbor, a faithful friend. God bless and direct the lingering feet in the way of righteousness, and the pearly gates at last to stand, and join hands

Generation 4 (con't)

The 1900 Warren Co., KY census indicates that Virginia had a total of 4 children, all of whom were living in 1900. In 1900 George and Virginia, along with their sons John and George, were living with their daughter, Virginia Dayton.

George A. Thompson. He was born Abt. 1828 in Tennessee. Reference ID was 138. He died in Bowling Green, Warren Co., KY. Burial in Bowling Green, Warren Co., KY.

Notes for George A. Thompson:

General Notes:

The 1900 Warren Co., KY census lists George as being three years older than Virginia which would make him born about 1828. The census lists him as being 59 years old in 1900 which would make him being born about 1841. The date of Virginia's birth should here is probably correct since it came out of the Harlan family bible. That would mean that George was older than indicated in the 1900 census.

Notes for James Forbes Harlan:

General Notes:

J. F. Harlan's Unusual Professions

Editor's Note: The following is a compilation of information from two biographical sketches written by John B. Harlan, subject of the story titled "John Bailey Harlan Was Shrewd Detective" on page 8 of the Spring 2004 Harlan Record. Juanita Creighton, of Richmond, Henrico Co., VA, submitted the detective piece and the two sketches compiled here. John B. Harlan was the brother of her grandfather, Howard Hinton Harlan (7956iii).

One of our Harlan cousins, James Forbes Harlan (#7956i), had some unusual professions. His brother, L&N Railroad detective John B. Harlan (#7956v), provided the following information.

Born in Albemarle County, VA, on July 12, 1851, James moved with his family shortly after the Civil War to Mountain Grove, Bath County, VA, where they resided in a cabin on property owned by Colonel A.C.L. Gatewood, of Confederate fame. The farm was situated at the fork of Little Back Creek and Big Back Creek.

"Mountain Grove was a little scattering village consisting of a Post Office, Blacksmith and Wheelwright shop, and a Manufacturing Mill belonging to old Colonel Gatewood," brother John recalled. It was located with Warm Spring Mountain to the east and the Allegheny Mountains to the west. "The little valley stretched up Big Back Creek perhaps eight or ten miles and ranged from two hundred and fifty feet to half a mile in width. In that section at that time, the mountains abounded with game, bear, deer, wolves, wild cats, panthers, catamount, wild turkey, pheasants, and, in fact all manner of game, and our chief occupation while in that section was hunting, trapping, and fishing," John wrote.

In 1873 or '74, the family moved to Greenbrier County, crossing the Allegheny Mountains in ox carts. They lived for about a year on Captain William Reed's farm, about a mile and a half northwest of Frankfort. They then lived for three years on the Lewis Creigh farm, then moved to Monroe County, to a section known as Swopes Knobs in the mountains near Johnson's Cross Roads, about 15 miles from union. Later the family moved to Henry County, Ky.

During the years that James lived in Greenbrier and Monroe counties, he worked most of the time as a professional hacker of brush on the mountains near Cranberry Glades in Pocahontas County, according to his brother.

While so engaged he came in contact with a Professor of Music from Richmond, Henrico Co., VA, L.J. Whitt, who was also a Professor of Penmanship, John continued, and the two became very much interested in each other, and Professor Whitt induced Mr. Harlan to travel with him and give music lessons and also take lessons in penmanship from him. They traveled together for two years or more, making quite a success in their profession. After Professor Whitt had returned to Richmond from West Virginia, Mr. Harlan took up his profession of teaching penmanship as well as giving music lessons on banjo and violin, more especially on the banjo. James became well known by traveling around to the crossroads school houses and teaching music and penmanship.

James Harlan's first banjo was a large gourd strung with horse hair, made for him by his grandfather's, servant, known as Uncle Lewis, who drove the family carriage.

After young Harlan got so he could strike a few tunes, there was a young lady in the neighborhood, Miss Mollie Clark, who took an interest in him, and being a good performer on the banjo herself, she taught him all the fundamental principles that she knew concerning banjo picking, John wrote.

He was considered a very great entertainer, according to his brother, who added, Young Harlan was always ready to play for the old fashion dances or help entertain the youngsters in the several communities in which he lived, but never charged anything for this service. It was always rendered cheerfully. However, he made a nominal charge for lessons in penmanship and music.

The family moved to Henry County, Ky, near New Castle, in 1881. In Kentucky, James Harlan continued to teach music and penmanship for a number of years, teaching in Indiana, Ohio, Arkansas, and Tennessee as well.

Around 1915, he began to work for the railroad in Alabama, Tennessee, and Kentucky. In 1927, the, year John Harlan wrote his sketch, his brother was located in Covington, Ky., and had been working for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company for three years. He was planning to travel back to Virginia to participate in the Old Fiddler's Contest at Ronceverte.

Killed in Oklahama

William E. Harlan, Formerly of Louisville, and Nephew of Captain J. B. Harlan and Mr. Ed Harlan of this City, Shot by Negro Employee

The news of the killing of Mr. William E. Harlan, of Muskogee, Oklahoma, was a shock to his friends here, where he and his sister had often visited. He was a nephew of Capt. J. B. and Mr. Ed Harlan, of this City.

Mr. Harlan was shot by a negro farm hand in a dispute over some money which the negro owed him and which he was about to hold out of his wages.

Mr. Harlan left Louisville about three years ago to engage in farming in Oklahoma. He is survived by his wife, Miss Ada Shelton, of Stanford, Ky.; a daughter; his mother, Mrs. Ida Harlan, and a sister, Mrs. Harry Trent.

The negro who committed the crime has been captured.

The body was brought to Louisville for burial, and the funeral services were held Thursday. Mrs. Harlan could not accompany her husband's remains, as their little daughter had just undergone an operation when her father was killed.

Notes for Mabel Harlan:

General Notes:

Mabel Harlan

One of the saddest deaths that has occurred in our midst in years was that of Mabel Harlan, the fourteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harlan. She passed into the "better land" on Saturday, February 1, and the remains were buried next day in the New Castle Cemetery. During the summer she had typhoid fever, and a short while ago she had scarlet fever. Naturally these left her in an enfeebled condition, so that the after effects in connection with something like la grippe were more than her vital powers could stand. She was a very bright child, with an affectionate disposition, and it is greatly to be regretted that one so lovely should have a life so brief. It is well with the child beyond peradventure: and no doubt what seems to the family an irreparable loss will prove to be a blessing. The hallowed memories of her stay in the household will be an inspiration to higher aims in life and eternity.
